Cooperatives and the World of Work

Edited by Bruno Roelants, International Co-operative Alliance, Hyungsik Eum, CICOPA (International Organisation of Industrial and Service Cooperatives), Simel Esim, International Labour Office, Sonja Novkovic, International Co-operative Alliance Research Committee and Walteri Katajamäki, International Labour Office.

As the world of work and jobs is more uncertain than ever through the rise of robotics and the gig economy, Cooperatives and the World of Work furthers the debate on the future of work, sustainable development, and the social and solidarity economy of which cooperatives are a fundamental component. Throughout the book, the authors, who are experts in their respective fields, do not limit themselves to praising the advantages of the cooperative model. Rather, they challenge the narrow understanding of cooperatives as a mere business model and raise debate on the more fundamental role that cooperatives play in responding to social changes and in changing society itself.
