VOL. 78 1/1/1985

Chers Lecteurs,

La Revue de la Coopération Internationale évolue:

- Elle a un nouveau titre: "INFORMATION coopérative internationale", car le mot information est doté de la même signification dans chacune des quatre langues officielles de l'Alliance susceptibles d'être imprimées en caractères latins (Anglais, Français, Espagnol et Allemand).
- Les prochaines éditions sortiront de presse les 15 octobre 1985 et 15 février 1986, respectivement.
- Les articles sont dorénavant publiés dans la langue originale dans laquelle ils ont été écrits.
- Ils sont tous accompagnés de substantiels résumés dans chacune des trois autres langues.
- Les abonnés à la Revue sont assurés de recevoir automatiquement tout communiqué de presse et toute publication occasionnelle émanant du siège de l'Alliance.
- Tandis qu'une étude est menée pour recenser les besoins en information de chacun des organismes membres de l'Alliance, la publication des "ICA News" (Nouvelles de l'ACI) est momentanément suspendue. Les lecteurs auxquels de telles "News" sont nécessaires sont bienvenus à faire état de leur besoins et à formuler leurs suggestions.

Coopérativement
La rédaction

Dear Readers,

The Review of International Co-operation is evolving:

- It has a new title, "International Co-operative INFORMATION". This new title has been chosen because the word information has exactly the same significance in each of the four official ICA languages using the roman alphabet.
- Articles will be published in their original language, rather than being translated into English.
- There will be resumés of all articles in other official languages.
- Subscribers to the Review will also receive ICA press releases, newsletters and occasional special publications while the information needs of all our member organizations are being surveyed. The ICA News has been suspended. Readers who wish to continue receiving this type of information are invited to write in, outlining their specific needs. Suggestions will be welcome.

EDITOR'S NOTE

Dear Readers,

Last July we appealed to you for subscriptions. The response was very heartening and, in some cases, quite beyond expectation, with some readers even offering to pay arrears for previous years. Our most sincere thanks to you all for your support.

In future, invoices will be sent with the last issue of each year.

This issue of the Review doubles as our annual report. In future, this trend will be maintained so that one issue each year will constitute the annual report, while another will feature Central Committee meetings. The two remaining issues will be devoted to topics of special interest to co-operators — including co-operative research. We also plan to reinstate the ICA Newsletter as from 1987. There will be four issues of the Review and four of the Newsletter. The two periodicals will alternate so that you will receive a publication from us slightly more frequently than every other month.

Further details will be given in our next issue of the review.

Message of the ICA Consumer Committee Consumers' Day — 15 March, 1988

This is the second time that the International Co-operative Alliance's Consumer Committee requests all consumer co-ops to celebrate 15 March as International Consumers' Day.

The theme selected by the Consumer Committee this year is:

“The Protection of the Environment and Ensuring Hazard-Free Products”.

We are constantly reminded of the danger of catastrophies to the environment. Scientists draw our attention to the warming up of the atmosphere, the formation of a hole in the ozone layer, and other dangers. Of course economical, social and scientific progress cannot be halted, but methods of changing certain consumer habits and finding alternative resources should be sought.

What can consumer co-ops do? The Consumer Committee is convinced that co-ops should investigate ways of decreasing waste through the use of recyclable packaging. In addition, harmful or hazardous products should be phased out or withdrawn altogether; Co-op Switzerland recently withdrew washing powders containing phosphate from its shelves.

The Consumer Committee would like to see different consumer co-ops identify measures to be taken in order to lessen the price which is paid for economic and scientific progress. It solemnly calls upon all consumer co-ops and individual co-op members to identify possibilities which could lead to a better protection of our environment and the supply of hazard-free products.
